

TOTAL STORE CLOSE-OUT of modern furniture

DUE TO A CHANGE OF POLICY
I have decided to confine my future endeavor to specializing in elegant Early American and Provincial home furnishings. I am closing out the remaining Modern furniture, at a loss, to make room for the incoming new franchised lines. Augmented, in Early American, are floor samples, one of a kind etc. An early selection is recommended.

THROW THE BALL . . . Mike Baltad and Toni Santaella, eighth grade students at Hillside, practice up for the ball throw on Saturday when the Hillside PTA holds its carnival on the school grounds. Principal John Strom poses at the target. The public is invited to attend the day of festivities.

Hillside's Country Fair Scheduled For Saturday

The Country Store will be the highlight of the annual Hillside PTA Carnival on April 30, from 12 noon to 4 p.m., states Mrs. Robert Kendrick, chairman of the event. Straw hats and scarves will be among the many articles for sale, carrying out the 'Country Fair' theme.

Herbert McCoy, game chairman, are featuring the 'Cake-walk' which offers a home-made cake as prize. All age groups will be interested in the new 'Spook House,' as well as the old-time favorites of fortune telling, fish bowl derby, dart throw, and others. Mrs. Bert Mennes is in charge of the game prizes, and states many surprises are in store. Hot dogs, cold drinks, coffee, desserts and candy will be offered under the direction of Mrs. Guy Gates, Mrs. Bob Allen and Mrs. T. J. Caspo.

The carnival, held once a year by the Hillside PTA is a major fund-raising project. Proceeds from the Country Fair will be used to further the Hillside PTA projects. The public is invited to attend.

Calle PTA Sponsors a Family Day

A May Day program and family day is being sponsored by the Calle Mayor PTA Saturday at the school cafeteria. This will be the last family event for the year. The school band will give a program and a hot dog lunch will be served. There will also be a May Pole dance and booths of all kinds of games and food. A magician, Larry Nelson of Burbank, will be on hand for two shows, at 1 and again at 2 p.m. The eighth grade boys will play a baseball game with their fathers. T. E. Harenski will serve as coach. Mrs. George Kurtz is chairman of the event. Proceeds will be used for community projects.

Carolina Guests
Entertaining out-of-town friends at Marineland Restaurant in Palos Verdes recently were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Perrett of Hollywood Riviera. Among the guests feting the honorees, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shackelford of Greensboro, N.C., with a seafood dinner in the "Porpoise Room" were Mr. and Mrs. Dressler Herbst of Torrance.

Rembrandt Crew In 'Parasol' Art Show

Rembrandt Crew, active painting members of the Palos Verdes Community Art Assn., will stage a Parasol Show in conjunction with the Annual Homes Tour to be held Saturday April 30 and Sunday May 1.

The Parasol Show will consist of various types of paintings and drawings, including many watercolors and oils. These pictures depict scenes of the San Pedro Harbor area and the many sites presented on the peninsula. Most of these works are for sale at a range of prices.

Some of the pictures will be framed and some matted. Portfolios of the artists will be available for browsing. Information for summer classes for children and adults in several fields of painting and drawing under well known instructors can be obtained at the show.

The Rembrandt Crew was formed in January, 1956. The group of 18 active painters is sponsored by the Palos Verdes Community Arts Assn., who arranged for the first exhibit in February, 1956.

The members paint outdoors once a week in groups or individually. Among the teachers are Caesar Hernandez, Davis Miller, James Cooper Wright, Enid Helvy, Moni Gillette, Arthur Adair, Jean Dayton West and Arthur Kramer. Mary Eve Douglas was the first chairman.

Many of the Rembrandt Crew have won awards in shows throughout the Southland. Florence Philleo of Palos Verdes, nationally known artist who recently won the Pur-

Temple Sisterhood Plans Israel Day Celebration

Temple Menorah Sisterhood has announced that decorations reflecting the independence of Israel are being planned. Israeli flags will be given out to the children at Temple Religious School. The event will be a family affair and games and prizes will be given to the children. Rabbi Henri Front and his family and Norman Horowitz, principal of Temple Menorah Religious School and his wife will be guests of honor. All women of the congregation are outdoing themselves preparing their most delicious recipes. Among those assisting in the preparation are Mmes. Robert Eckhouse, Stanley Lieber, Gene Kaufman, Mel Schumacher, Jackson Belford, Edward London, Donald Finkelstein, Ben Kaufman, Charles Bortek and Lee Weinberg.

Installation Dinner Slated This Evening

Members, families and friends of the Harbor Aquarium Society will meet this evening at 8 p.m. in the Recreation Hall at McMasters Park, 174th and Yukon in Torrance for the annual installation dinner.

New officers to be installed are: Russel Gammel of Redondo Beach, president; Vic Boswell of Redondo Beach, vice-president; Ann Moore of Torrance, secretary; and Evelyn Church of Gardena, treasurer. This meeting marks the 10th anniversary of the founding of the Harbor Aquarium Society by a small group of area aquarists in San Pedro ten years ago. Members Evelyn Church and Charles Wade will be presented with 10-year membership pins.

For the first time, there is a tie for the most points of the year on show fish. Alvin McEwen and Rex Nowling will be awarded identical trophies. The only business conducted at this meeting will be the appointment of committee heads for the new club year. There will be no fish show this month. The door prize will be a five-gallon aquarium with hood.

Easter Picnic
Mr. and Mrs. Francis Stoekle and Nancy and Dick attended a family picnic in Santa Ana Easter Sunday. They were accompanied home by their daughter, Donna, who had spent the week in Santa Ana as guest of Dr. and Mrs. Ray Brandt and son, Kenneth.

Dakota Guests
Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lambert and son, Tommy, of Mt. Xernon, South Dakota, spent several days here last week as guests of Mrs. Lambert's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle O'Hara on Fern Ave. Tommy is serving with the Air Force and will leave soon on an overseas assignment.
